"JO WHALEN RELICS"
EDITOR'S NOTE: The
writer of this article, who
wishes to remain anonymous, is highly educated,
a person of considerable
experience and a reporter
and writer of distinct ability, as will be gleaned
from her articles.

Recently she toured E.
Montecito, especially the
small but highly efficient
and modern industry and business there. We are happy herewith to present
her article, dealing with the "Jo Whalen Relics"
setup. Addressed to "Dear Editor," she writes:

On this red and white New England house at 33 E.
Montecito is a sign "Jo Whalen Relics." This little building antedates almost everything in Sierra Madre. It was used for lemon picking
by the Hawks family, long ago when Sierra Madre had groves instead of houses.

Looked in the window and
thought how fitting that so
many remains of earlier
days should find their way
back to the starting point.

Went inside and waited
for Jo Whalen, whose deep voice ("tugboat Annie" timber) was relaying information from telephone to customer re: the history of a
pine cabinet which old-timer
on line wanted to sell and
new client in shop wanted
to buy.

NOTED SIGN pointing to Sports Department on me-
zanine where various objects
hung from rafters—a dinghy
at $30, never-used Austrian ski boots $12, bow and arrows, badminton racquets
and skates.

Noted sign pointing to
"Bargain Basement Annex"
where miscellanies rubbed
shoulders—old wooden handled knives never used (obviously a duplicated wedding present). An 1860
crimping iron next to a 1960
steam iron. A rotisserie, a steak broiler, a washing machine, and a 49ers iron scales.

Browsed on main floor
while waiting. Decided to buy a tavern chair for $4,
a serigraph by one of Sister
Corita's pupils for $2, a Picasso print for $2, a bar of imported soap in original
wrapper for 65 cents, and a record for 5 cents.

Was tempted by an early Toby jug, but resisted. Noted
a tree of remnants at 10
cents each, a juke box, a piece of contemporary sculpture, an ivory tusk, a cabinet of crystal, some oriental stuff, and a Victorian
scuttle.

THE THREE-WAY telephone deal completed, to the obvious satisfaction of all parties, and payment made
—we, the new customer who
was loath to leave, Jo, and I settled ourselves on a red-
wood chaise, an old rocker,
and a child's chair for my
interview.

"Sure makes me feel good
to find new homes for old
things," said Jo.

"How did you get so many things so quickly?" I asked.
"Easy! People just keep bringing them in and taking them out."

"But do you think there
will be enough patronage for
an antique show on a side
street in such a small town?" I asked.

"MY YES! People have been hearing about it and
coming from Beverly Hills
and Glendale. A dealer came from Sunset Strip; a man
from Rosemead bought my Indian collection; I sold the plano to a Pasadena. They all said my prices were very reasonable."

"For antiques, you mean."
"For whatever they want!"
I don't know anything about antiques. People who bring things to me put their own prices on things. And those who ask me to find certain things tell me how much they will pay.

"Of course I can't bring

900 See 2nd S.M. Aqua Fair

Amidst a moonlit night, an American satellite circling
blazingly across the August
sky, the aqua blue of an illuminated swim pool, soft music by the Sierra Madre Community Concert Band—
and youth, racing and exhibiting in the water—plus a record outpouring, the second annual Aqua Fair was staged at Sierra Madre Vista Park last Friday night.

The attendance was more
than 900, compared to the 600 last year.

There were water ballets,
comic water skits and water
racing, proving that Sierra Madre swimmers, under the general supervision of Recreational Director David A.
Sommers, need take no back
seat in aquatic sports or displays.

And there were men and
women of the elder strata—
coaches, officials, announcers—who also displayed an
unselfish and civic spirit, conducive to the welfare of the city's youth and pleasure and
progress of this Foothill City
of Livability.

FROM THE OPENING
number with Ann Myer, Mike Waite, Nancy Solary and Rory Smith as the flag bearers, and the Indian ballet of Laurie Zurn and Cynthia
Mathews, the show was a
medley of color and action.
March of the Siamese Children water ballet, with Ruth Ann Meyer, Linda Holleran,
Sue Scalzo, Bonnie Burke,
Leanne Toms and Christy
Rogers, and the Oriental number by Pat Fend and Sharon Schnell, drew deserved applause.

Naturally, there has to be
humor and it was well taken care of by the Dip and Dive
square dance in the water
with Diane Krutch, Debby
Watts, Peggy Collins, Linda
Waite, John Meyer, Darrell
Clardy, Larry Morse and Skip Lindquist as the principals, and by the pajama
race between teams representing the Life Guards and
the Instructors, the first comprising Mert Waite, Betty Morr, Pat Fend and Diana
Krutch, and the second Rick
Milford, Bud Green, Sharron
Schnell and Linda Waite.

CANDY OLIVER won the race for girls from 8 to 9
years; Bob Housel the race
for boys of the same age;
Debbie Willis the Funny
Book race for boys and girls
under 8; Donna Beck the race for girls 10 and 11;
Steve Dowd, the contest for
boys 10 and 11; Riley Keith,
the race for boys 12 and 13;
Carl Poduska for boys 14
and 15, and John Meyer for boys 16 and over.

Another S. M. News First

The SIERRA MADRE NEWS in last Thursday's issue presented exclusively the news about the $8,000
fur and jewelry burglary at Wessel's Suburbia Shops
in Sierra Madre.

Neither of the Pasadena newspapers nor the Los Angeles papers printed a word about this daring
burglary, even though it occurred on Tuesday night
a week ago.

Just another SIERRA MADRE NEWS First—another reason why readers and advertisers should patronize their own Home Town Newspaper.

Sept. 6 For Hearing On Street Lighting

Businessmen and the public generally will have an opportunity to express their opinion on the proposed modernization of Sierra Madre's antiquated lighting system
at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors at 8 o'clock the morning of Tuesday, Sept. 6, in City Council Chambers.

Because of the interest in
the project which has received City Council's budgetary approval, and the attendance expected, the meeting place has been changed
from the First Western Bank
where the C. of C. directors
usually meet to the Council Chambers in City Hall.

The lighting program itself, ways and means of putting it into effect and recommendations will be discussed before the gathering
by City Councilman Milton
R. Emerson and City Administrator Lawrence C. Beving-
ton, constituting Council's

Lighting Committee who
with Southern California Ed-
ison's representative, have formulated the proposed new
lighting system for business
and residential areas.

JOHN H. CURTIS, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who will preside at
the meeting, says:

"Something must be done
to obtain better lighting for Sierra Madre."

There is a possibility that
a representative from the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors and Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan will attend, each to stress danger
to traffic from darkened
streets.

The present system inaugurated 25 years ago, has not been changed in that time, and with 10,000 motor vehicles traversing Sierra Madre Blvd. each day, according to county estimates,
that thoroughfare and others
so dimly lighted, present a distinct danger to motorists.
LIGHTING COSTS to residential areas would average
from 36 to 62 cents a month
for each home.

sing the summer Vacation Time a fond farewell. Swim

Mesa Public Schools, St. Rita's Catholic school, Ascension

Keep Lights On Nights

One way to help prevent burglaries is to have
business establishments well lighted all night.

Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan emphasizes the value of this in preventing burglaries, adding that
at least one light capable of well illuminating the
whole establishment, should be kept on every night,
all night.

"If there's anyone inside a store or business establishment, police can then spot them more easily,"
the chief concluded.

Children, Matches Cause Fire in Wilderness Park Which Is Quickly Quelled

Children with matches almost caused another disastrous forest fire in the Sierra Madre region Tuesday afternoon.

Only quick work by the Arcadia Fire Department and U.S. Forest Service fire fighters and their "hot-shot" fire fighting equipment from the Oak Grove Station, near Pasadena, contained and extinguished the fire which was started in Wilderness Park
in Arcadia and near the Sierra Madre city line.

U.S. Forest Service Ranger
David Westfall, 2219 N.
Santa Anita, Arcadia, attributed the slight blaze to children playing with matches
while in Wilderness Park.

IT WAS the first instance
in a long time that Sierra Madreans saw the Forest Service hose and chemical
wagons and the helmeted
fire fighters whizzing down
Sierra Madre Blvd. to a fire scene.

Fortunately, the Arcadia
Fire Department had the situation under control by the time the Forest Service crews
arrived.

Plastic Bag Is Fatal for Young Twin

While he slept, a 7-month-
old twin son of Mrs. Barbara Rock, 24 Windsor Lane, suffocated Monday night when
a plastic bag used as a bed
sheet covered his face, police report. A coroner's autopsy was held to determine the exact cause of death.

The victim was Timmy
Duane Rock. The child's father, Thomas Rock, 20, lives
in Arcadia. Mrs. Rock is 16.
The latter advised officers
that she and a friend, Richard Wagner, 27, of Sierra Madre Hotel, were laying
linoleum in the children's bedroom and that she had put the twin boys on a double bed so that they would not be disturbed by the noise.
Mrs. Rock added that when she checked the twins
at 10 p.m., she found Timmy
with the plastic bag over his face. She and Wagner rushed
the child to Sierra Madre Hospital but he was found dead on arrival there.

Dynes Uges Kiwanians to O.K. 'No. 15'

"Taxation without representation in the state senate will end for the south
half of California if California voters approve Proposition No. 15, in the November
election."

This was the declaration
of Hugh Dynes, deputy supervisor to Frank G. Bonelli,
in a stirring address given
Tuesday before the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club.

The present method of
electing state senators, explained Dynes, gives the south half of the state 11%
senators and the north half 28%. This situation exists
in spite of the fact that the south half of the state has 9,290,100 population in contrast to 5,989,900 for the north, and the further fact

Register—Better Hurry!

Come Tuesday, Nov. 8, do you wish to vote for Dick Nixon or Jack Kennedy?

If you do and are not registered, better hurry, for Sept. 15 is the deadline.

Just to make it less difficult, City Clerk L. Marie
Warfel announces that Doris DeWeese will be at City
Hall from 1 to 3 o'clock the afternoons of Sept. 1
(today) and Sept. 2.

There will be no registrations Labor Day, Monday,
Sept. 5, or Admission Day, Friday, Sept. 9.

From Sept. 6, with Admission Day excluded, there will be registrations on that day, and Sept. 7, 8, 12, 13, 14 and 15.

the Air Logistics Corp. annual tournament held at the Los Serranos Golf and Country Club in Chino, Calif. Scoring

a second low net of 67, four strokes below par, John admits it wasn't all skill.
However, appreciation is due
his pro, Martin Sykes; also his handicap helped.

John Sielen is chief cost
accountant and cost analyst
of Air Logistics Corp. in Pasadena. He also is a member of the National Association
of Accountants, and treasurer of their local area
luncheon group which meets
monthly in Pasadena.

Formerly a controller for the past ten years, and a graduate of University of Southern California, John
finds Sierra Madre a most pleasant and delightful
place to live with his wife
and five children.

School Area Is Facing Loss

Arcadia's desire to annex
a small area within Sierra Madre's School District will not be opposed if this city's voters at the Oct. 18 special election approve the move to annex to the Pasadena School District, according to Supt. Robert E. Walker.

In case the voters okay
annexation, Arcadia's request
will be up to the Pasadena School District. Otherwise,
it would have the approval
of Sierra Madre school authorities.

The district in question
would affect some 25 homes
containing 13 children who wish to attend the nearby
Highland Oaks School in Arcadia. The western boundary would extend three streets west of Santa Anita Ave., with the eastern boundary on Oakwood Ave.

BICYCLE IS STOLEN

Mrs. William Polamshok,
Ranch, reported to Sierra Madre police that her son's
bicycle was stolen while parked in the Michillinda-
W. Sierra Madre Blvd. area.

Following the presentation of a large birthday cake to Miss Hogan by the regent, Mrs. Fred Rulison, Kenneth Eldridge played several Scottish numbers on the bagpipes, and a color film, taken by Mrs. Rulison on a recent trip to England, was shown.

Fall Program To Open Sept. 12

"Politics, 1960," the very popular and timely study-discussion program, sponsored by Pasadena Liberal Arts Center, is to be held at the Rodeo home, 59 W. Carter, beginning Monday, Sept. 12, at 8 p.m. and continuing for 11 sessions each Monday night. Sid Brown of Sierra Madre and Aerojet-General is the experienced leader who will be in charge of this group.

"Politics, 1960" is a subject for all Republicans, Democrats, Independents—everyone who really wants to become an intelligent voter. Participants will read and discuss articles and speeches on such topics as, "The Role of the Parties," "Profile of the Electorate," "The Process of Persuasion," and five of the current issues including "Budgets and Welfare Legislation," "Labor, Business and the Public," "Civil Rights," "Dilemmas of Foreign Policy" and "The Balance of Terror."

"Contemporary Novel and Short Story" is a new study-discussion program prepared by Pennsylvania State University and should offer a stimulating experience for those who seek intellectual respite from the rigors of politics.

Two new lecture-discussion programs consist of a 45-minute lecture by authorities on the subjects and then an hour's discussion of the lecture. "Understanding Architecture" will offer the prominent architect and civic leader, Doug Byles, as lecturer, with meeting places held in buildings ranging from old adobes to contemporary offices. "Myths, Symbols and Psychology" will feature Ralph Hallman in a new subject of universal appeal.

The favorite groups of the past—"Drma for Discussion" with seats to five playhouse productions), "Economic Reasoning," "Great Religions," "Introduction to the Humanities," to name only a few, will be continued again this fall.

Discussion groups are held on week nights for 11 weeks, beginning in September and early October. In the past about 5,000 persons have found these programs a rewarding experience.

If you are interested in joining a group this year, or if you would like to be placed on the mailing list, call SY. 5-4439, or write Pasadena Area Liberal Arts Center, 285 S. Los Robles, Pasadena, Calif.

Mrs. Ralph Williams Jr.

Constance Annette Krystoff Weds Ralph Williams Jr. in Pasadena

White flowers and ferns banked the altar at Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church Aug. 27 when Constance Annette Krystoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Krystoff, 3805 Shadow Grove, became the bride of Ralph Williams Jr. at a 9:30 a.m. Nuptial Mass. The Rev. Patrick Thompson read the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white peu de soie and re-emerged with a fitted bodice and full skirt which swept into a chapel train. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a Tiffany crown and she carried a bouquet of lilies.

THE MATRON of honor, Mrs. Richard Olson, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Donald Davis and Miss Daria Stevenson, wore champagne cotton eyelet frocks and similar crown headpieces, with short veils, and carried bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Richard Atherton served his brother-in-law as best man and the guests were seated by Fred Dorer and Richard Foster.

June Krystoff, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Bruce Atherton, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride was attired in a pale blue embroidered organza sheath accented by white accessories and corsage of white roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink gown fashioned with a fitted bodice of lace and full skirt of chiffon. Her accessories and rose corsage were white.

A RECEPTION for more than 200 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. Silver candelabras and bouquets of white flowers decorated the refreshment table which held the three-tier wedding cake and champagne punch. Doreen Spencer was in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Pasadena City College, Long Beach State College where she received her B.A. degree and Los Angeles State College where she received her master's degree in art. Her main art interest is the illustration of children's books.

The bridegroom, son of the Ralph Williams Srs. of Lynwood, Calif., is a graduate of Long Beach State College. He is returning this semester to begin work on his master's degree in psychology.

ALA Members to Meet on Sept. 8

American Legion Auxiliary will meet the evening of Sept. 8 in the home of Mrs. Theo Proctor, 280 San Gabriel Ct.

Nancy Milton, president, has requested members to notify her when there is an illness or death.

The unit welcomed Leila Embree and Kitty Miller, both of whom have been ill, back at the last meeting.

Mrs. Helen Wheeler attended the funeral of her brother in Riverside last Saturday.

BAY CITY VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Warden, 139 W. Bonita, and Mr. and Mrs. Rollin S. Woodworth, 990 Medford, returned Sunday from San Francisco where they had spent four days while the men attended a business conference.

Cavanaghs To Reside In London

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Cavanagh and their children, Michael, 12 and Laurie, 9, will fly to London from New York on Sept. 5.

Mr. Cavanagh has been appointed general manager of the newly formed London branch of Cannon Electric International Inc. They will be in London for a three-year sojourn.

He is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and was a former associate in the firm of Booz, Allen and Hamilton, nationally known management consultants.

The Cavanagh family has lived here for the past ten years. The children attended St. Rita's School and Mr. Cavanagh was a member of the Holy Name Society.

Mrs. Cavanagh has been active as a board member of St. Rita's Guild, and in the Sierra Madre Girl Scouts.

Friends will miss the Cavanagh family, but Mrs. Cavanagh has promised to keep neighbors informed with news letters on "life of an American family in London."

They were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Moe by members of St. Rita's Parish.

Episcopal Women Resume Activities Fall Season

Women of the Church of the Ascension will resume activities following the summer vacation with their regular monthly meeting in the Parish Hall, Wednesday, Sept. 7, at 10 a.m. sharp.

This meeting, according to Mrs. H. J. Summers, president, will be to discuss plans for the "Fall Festival" which is to be held on the church grounds Oct. 15.

The women are requested to bring their finished items for sale to the meeting, along with donations for the individual booths, either rummage from home, or articles they have bought.

Sandwiches for lunch should be brought; coffee will be provided. Babysitting also will be available on the school playground.

The festival will offer many things of interest—the Treasure Chest, where jewelry and small knick-knacks may be purchased; snack bars will serve coffee, hot dogs and snacks all day, and a Chuck Wagon Dinner will be served in the evening.

Horace Ditchfield, expert handwriting analyst, will be present to tell you all about yourself from samples of your handwriting.

Joseph Dauben again will present his "Magic Show," which was shown at the Art Fair last year.

Playground activities will be scheduled for the children. In addition, there will be a baked food sale, an afternoon tea, and a parcel post sale with items from places both near and far.

Republican Women Schedule Fiesta

Arcadia Republican Women's Club will sponsor a

Mexican Fiesta Sept. 24 at the William W. Farrar home, according to Mrs. Edward A. Heiss.

Mrs. Robert Adickes, party chairman, has asked members to donate books of trading stamps to be used to obtain prizes for the affair.

If some of the Dodge games sound dull on KFI because nothing much is happening but an occasional base hit, you might try this remedy. Turn to KWKW and hear the game in Spanish. Unless you speak Spanish like a Mexican baseball announcer, you won't understand much except remarks such as "dos ballos, dos strikes," but that man can get so excited about the game that his voice rises to a soprano pitch and his words come out like a fast ball.

So you hate yourself for having turned to this version just when something extraordinary happens at the ball park, and you quickly switch back to the English game. Here Vin Scully is telling the fans that Wally Moon hit a ball right at the shortstop, who caught it, or something equally unexciting.

But there's something fascinating about such fever-pitch excitement as the KWKW man generates, and you find yourself tuning back to him. He really peps up the game.

THE BOY SCOUTS of Troop 374 and Explorer Post 374 from Trinity Church are having a busy time distributing the big 50-star flags they are selling as part of a national Good Turn project. The flags are 3x5-feet, and include a 6-foot pole, ball ornament, etc., as well as instructions on how and when to fly the flag.

If you speak up quickly, you can have yours in time for Labor Day. Just call the Hazel Gittinger found her way home last week after a two-month holiday. Part of her time was spent in Idaho Falls where she visited her sister whose husband, a navy doctor, is stationed there. From there she continued on to the Tri-Cities in Illinois to visit her parents and old friends. En route home, she stopped in Kansas City to have a hello with Jim's family.

Steve Smith To Study In Europe

Steve Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Smith, 3835 Greenhill Rd., is motoring with his parents to New York on the first leg of his trip to Salzburg, Austria, where he will spend next year studying.

En route east, he will stop in Louisville, Ky., Washington, D.C. and Philadelphia to visit relatives and sightsee. Sailing from New York Sept. 15, he will spend 10 days on the Ascania, a student ship, before arriving at Southampton, England.

After touring the London area, the group will continue on through Belgium, Holland, Germany and Switzerland before arriving in Salzburg.

During the semester's studies in the Austrian city, the students will tour Czechoslovakia, Italy and France.

Steve is one of 50 students from the University of Redlands making this trip. He was elected president of these Associated Students.

At the semester's end, Steve with a few others, will remain on the Continent to pursue their studies in universities in Europe. The others will return to Redlands.

Suicide bound — attention!—This weekend will offer an excellent opportunity to accomplish your mission with little effort. Matter of fact, you might even take some innocent bystanders with you.

All the aforementioned is just to point up the fact that this too will be a record breaking Labor Day weekend with the prescribed number of highway deaths and accidents.

Please, don't end up a statistic—drive carefully, I just can't afford to lose one single reader ...

IT IS STILL difficult to find local activity as everyone seems to be vacationing, right up to the last minute. I'm just jealous, our vacation is spent.

AT THIS WRITING the William LeBaron family of 1075 Sierra Madre Villa should be arriving in Europe. They have leased their home for a year and departed two weeks ago via the United States Lines to spend a year on the Continent.

Their son and daughter will both attend school in London. Mr. LeBaron will teach in a modern school there and Mr. LeBaron will attend the University of London as well as study British methods of teaching. During vacation time they will travel extensively in the car they plan to pick up on arrival.

As a farewell surprise a potluck group to which they belong had a party at their home. Gifts were mostly of the gag variety such as old dead flowers, used crossword puzzles and other handy little items like that. Main gift was a lot of film for their cameras.

The party included Messrs. and Mesdames Irving Garrison, Ralph Hornbeck, Gordon Turner, Owen Parry, William Weigel and George Bystrom.

Their home has been leased for the year by Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Price and two daughters, Judy and Jan. The Prices are former residents of Lombardy Rd. in Pasadena. They no longer moved in than they too took off for a Balboa Beach holiday.

DR. C. L. SHUSTER of Sierra Madre Villa vacationed Mrs. Bruce Garland, also of this year with his 12-year-old daughter Marguerite.

They went camping at Trail Lake which is in the Ten Lake District, for two weeks.

THE JOHN GRIFFITHS of Mesita Rr. are beginning to suspect that maybe this is not their year. Mrs. G. just recently had the cast removed from her leg after a severe muscle and tendon injury.

They were at the beach just four days into their two-week vacation when Mr. G. turned one way and left his foot the other way while playing tag with his children.

Right—a broken ankle. As it was so well put, wasn't it nice that they bought their crutches.

While they were there they managed to do a little entertaining in spite of gimpy legs. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Seichert were among their visitors.

Mrs. Seichert tells me, by way of conversation that the street has 12 new inhabitants—The Foxe family basket hound has produced a litter of six pups and the Seichert's cat has had six kittens.

MR. AND MRS. HITT CRANE JR. of Old House Rd. are home again with their two daughters, Chrissy and Cheryl. They spent three weeks with Mr. Crane's family on Pine Island at Lake Winnepesaukee in New Hampshire.

It turned out to be a wonderful family reunion with various members arriving at different times during their stay.

THE WALTER DORNS can be found "At Home" these days. Their new pool has just been filled with water and they were swimming in spite of the cool weather.

Ranchettes

Ranch Dr., are the parents of a son, Thomas Mark, born Mr. and Mrs. Jeremy T. Garland, 1335 Hastings Aug. 21 at Huntington Memorial Hospital and weighing 8 pounds. Maternal grandparents are Mrs. C. N. Swanson of Detroit, Mich., and the late Dr. Swanson. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Garland, also of Detroit.

W. E. Pickett To Address Lions Sept. 9

Wayne E. Pickett, representative of the Title Insurance and Trust Company, Los Angeles, will present an illustrated lecture program at the Thursday, Sept. 8, meeting of the Sierra Madre Lions Club, Joe Delgatto, president of Lions Club, announced yesterday.

The meeting is scheduled for 7:15 p.m., at the Pink and White Cottage, 147 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre.

The program, entitled "Yesterday," will take members on a tour of the Southland as it looked during the late 1800's and at the turn of the century. The slides in the program have been made from photographs belonging to the famous historical collection of Title Insurance and Trust Company. This collection, which dates back to 1850, is one of the largest of its kind.

Nursery School Invites Parents To Coffee Party

Hastings Ranch Nursery School will have a coffee hour next Thursday morning beginning at 10, to acquaint parents of all children enrolled for the coming term with the school, staff, equipment and officers.

Board members will be introduced and explain their particular activities in behalf of the school.

Mrs. Viola Carmichael, director will discuss what can be expected of children generally at different age levels. She will also introduce the staff which includes Mrs. Jeanne Crum, Mrs. Sylvia Marugg and Mrs. Lou Ann Helmers, new members, and Mrs. Janice Meyers and Mrs. Ruth Shochat who were with the school last year. Mrs. Lois Orswell will continue assisting as office secretary.

During the "get acquainted hour," parents will meet other parents whose children are in the same class as their own, with the possibility of setting up car pools, baby sitting trades, etc.

All parents are urged to attend this important and Reflections While You Shop!

By Lisa Churchill

Another new Sierra Madre merchant, Dick King, jeweler, tells me that he has been here since February, so hardly comes under the heading of "Johnny Come Lately."

However, his shop seemed so much at home in the Square, I was surprised to learn that he had been here so short a time.

HAVE YOU all seen the outstanding picture gallery at the Pink and White Cafe? The Epples were telling me that the paintings are done on white velvet by a Mexican artist.

The technique is new to me, but the results are certainly distinguished. Drop in for dinner soon and enjoy colorful and unique scenes and people from our neighboring country.

RACE TRACK fans enjoyed an unusual bit of racing color last week when Silky Sullivan paraded on the track at Del Mar to celebrate the Silky Sullivan Handicap, and the anniversary of his last racing day due to a pulled tendon.

I never saw Silky run but I understand he used to gambol all over the track and probably gave his owner and bettors slight heart attacks, until he reached the stretch and heard the roars of the crowd. At that point he would take off and never look back.

LAST WEEK, Silky, resplendent in the red silks he wore while racing, with the added gaiety of red harness, ribbons and socks, paraded slowly the length of the grandstand led by the stable pony.

At the end of the grandstand, they turned and loosed Silky for a stretch run.

Silky had his own ideas. He bucked and he pranced, he sidled and he danced. He gambled and performed like a great comedian once more responding to the applause of the crowd.

Suddenly, he whipped into line and tore back to the stables, in the true Sullivan finish.

Silky had a short racing career but it was certainly an entertaining and endearing one.

Museum to Hold Exhibit

Pasadena Art Museum is holding its annual San Gabriel Valley Artists exhibition this year Oct. 9 through Nov. 9.

The jury for the exhibition will meet Sept. 5 to select works to be included in the exhibition. Jury members include Richard Haihes, Dr. Bates Lowry and Emerson Woelffer.

Residents of the San Gabriel Valley are invited to submit work to the museum on Sept. 1, 2 and 3. Entry blanks may be obtained at the Pasadena Art Museum.

At the recommendation of the jury, the museum will devote between $500 to $1,000 for purchasing works from the exhibition for its permanent collection. Award winners will be given special consideration for one-man exhibitions in the Contemporary Galleries of the museum.

Sierra Madrean Baha'i Speaker

A Sierra Madre resident was the featured speaker last Sunday morning at the large public meeting sponsored by the Baha'is of the San Diego area in the U.S. Grant Hotel.

Mrs. F. Joseph McCormack, of 823 Canyon Crest Dr., spoke on the Baha'i teachings on world unity and peace.

One of the best known Baha'i speakers and teachers in the United States, Mrs. McCormack and her husband travel extensively under the auspices of the Baha'i National and Area Teaching Committees.

Sterling Ripples Enjoy Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling T. Ripple of 201 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., the former proprietor of Ripple's Mortuary, are enjoying a two-week vacation, the first part of which was spent in San Diego and in Mexico. The second week brought a stay on Catalina Island.

all of these into the shop.
I'd never have room. But I know where they are. Every day people call and ask me
to sell pieces which have been in their families for years. Sometimes they are exactly what a decorator requests.

"Sierra Madre is a very old town, you know. And the people who came here
from England, and New England, and Canada and Mexico brought their things
with them, lovely things,
good then and good now.

"Then, too, there are people who are moving for the first time, from big houses
into apartments, and they have to store or sell if they have too much.

"In the few weeks I've
been open I've been invited
into some of the most interesting homes, and I've met
some of the most wonderful people."

THUS SPAKE Jo Whalen,
with warmth and sincerity.
Undoubtedly these "wonderful people," her new clients,
will be drawn into the wide
circle known in Sierra Madre as "Friends of the Whalens."

Fortunately Jo has the
constant encouragement and
support of her tall, quiet
husband, Howard Whalen,
widely known potter and
sculptor.

VARIANCE
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN
pursuant to the provisions of the Code of the City of Sierra Madre,
Section 9225, that the Planning Commission of the City of Sierra Madre has fixed Thursday, September 15, 1960, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. in the Council
Chambers of the City Hall, 55
West Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, California, as the time and
place for holding a public hearing
on a proposed variance to create
four lots, with frontages varying from 54 ft. to 57 ft. and a uniform depth of 180 ft. from property described as Portions of Lots 68, 70, 71 of Prospect Tract, Further described as 416 Mansanta Avenue.
Application and plans are on file in the office of the Secretary
of the Planning Commission.
The proposed variance is based upon the grounds that there are special circumstances attached to
said property which generally do not apply to other properties in
the same district and vicinity;
that the granting of a variance
as aforesaid will not result in a material damage or prejudice to
other property not be detrimental
to the public welfare or injurious
to persons in the vicinity thereof,
in that the proposed variance, if granted, would be subject to such conditions as the Planning Commission may deem necessary to assure that the spirit and purpose
of said City Zoning Code will be observed, public welfare and safety secured, and substantial justice
done to all parties.

which pays $722,000,000 in state taxes—with its one senator—has 47 per cent of this money spent in the county while 46 of the counties of the state, paying $55,000,000 in taxes actually have $55,200,000 spent with them.

ANOTHER glaring inequity in representation and fairness of adjusting the tax load is shown in the fact that Los Angeles County with 40 per cent of the state's population has but 2½ per cent of the Senate while the remaining 60 per cent have the balance of 97½ per cent of the Senate representation.

Los Angeles County, with approximately the same population as the north half of the state, has but one senator in contrast to 28½ for the north.

Dynes further pointed out that 67 per cent of the state's gasoline tax money is paid in the south, while but 55 per cent of it is spent here, in contrast to 45 per cent of it being spent in the north which produces but 33 per cent of this fund. A split of 60-40 is being sought, Dynes explained.

Regardless of what happens to the state water bonds, the speaker pointed out, it would be necessary to have a new representation in the Senate if we are ever to have fairness in obtaining our just share of the state water, considering that we would pay some 65 per cent of the cost of dam construction.

"PROPOSITION No. 15," Dynes said "would give the south 20 senators and the north 20 senators, a much fairer basis of representation than at present.

Los Angeles County would have seven senators, not even then the 16 that its population would give it, but much fairer than at present. Orange County would have two and San Diego County two senators. Such representation is vital," Dynes insisted, "if the vital interests of the great south section of the state are to be protected."

The Bonelli plan would give Los Angeles County and the south section of the state vital committee membership which it now lacks.

Dynes strongly urged a yes vote on Proposition 15 at the fall election, to give the people of the state fairness in representation and to protect the Southland.

School Time Again

60. For the first time, St. Rita's will have two first grades, staffed by Sister Denise and Mrs. Thomas Dinny. The Sept. 6 session, starting at 8 a.m., will also include late registration.

Other teachers are the new principal, Mother Superior M. Hermana, who was second grade teacher at St. Rita's from 1949 to 1956, and who will again teach the second grade; Sister Mary Mark, sixth grade; Sister Rose Mary, third grade; Mrs. Marian Hennig, fifth grade; Mrs. Arthur Rowe, fourth grade; Sister M. Norberta, seventh grade, and Sister M. Leonard, eighth grade.

PUPILS in grades one through eight will report for class in the Ascension Parish Day School Tuesday morning, Sept. 13. The kindergarten group, which has an extra, though in most cases, unappreciated, day of freedom, will enter Wednesday morning.

A 50-star American flag, presented by Anne and Stephen Hassell, will be used in the first chapel service on Tuesday morning, and 50-star flags, gift of David Philipson, a graduate of June, 1960, will be presented to all classrooms.

Enrollment for the fall numbers 125, including the eighth grade class of 18, six of whom entered Ascension in kindergarten. Girls outnumber boys in kindergarten and grade one; even up in grades two and three, and boys are in the majority in grades four through eight.

Mrs. Leonard Houston of San Gabriel will replace Mrs. E. T. Roth as teacher in grades five and six, as Mrs. Roth is continuing work toward her degree in library science at the University of Southern California. Mrs. Houston is a graduate of the University of Georgia and has completed requirements for certification in California. The only other change in the teaching staff is the addition of Mrs. Jack White of Arcadia as director of chorus.

OPENING of La Salle High also signifies first use of the new $125,000 gymnasium only recently completed. Freshmen and sophomores will register, beginning at 8:45 a.m. on Sept. 6, and upper classmen on Sept. 7. Study classes will begin Thursday, Sept. 8.

Increased costs for the new system in the business district would be about $3.50 a month. Of this, the city is expected to bear a share. Should the total cost for a merchant be around $7.75 a month, the city might pay $4.40 and the business owner $3.35 a month. This percentage, however, might be changed.

A Momentous Autumn

Ushered in by Labor Day and the beginning of school days, it's going to be a momentous fall in our country, state and city.

We have, of course a Presidential election in which the American people will decide whether Richard M. Nixon of California or John Kennedy of Massachusetts will torchlight the destiny of this country for the next four years.

REPUBLICANS generally should realize that only the hardest kind of political work will bring victory for Nixon.

Nixon aides were elated at the first Gallup poll showing Nixon leading Kennedy 50 to 44, with a 6 per cent undecided. Expectation had been that Nixon would be the underdog.

Second thoughts, however, were that the lead is not enough to provide victory. The Nixon command remembered that Tennessee's leading newspapers predicted Kefauver would be defeated on Aug. 4 by Judge Taylor, yet "Coonskin" Estes won decisively.

The postmortem verdict is that one important factor in the downfall of Conservative Taylor was the superlative AFL-CIO work at the precinct level which gave Kefauver a 10 per cent margin in getting out the vote. The Republican Party also has to depend upon volunteers at the precinct level.

Hence, many dopesters believe that the Republican ticket will have to have at least a 55-45 margin in public opinion if the election returns are to be 51-49 in their favor.

Don't forget that superlative precinct organization and work wins elections.

CITYWISE, we have the Oct. 18 election to decide whether Sierra Madre School District shall annex to the Pasadena School District. Already this is warming up, with a Curtis-Brown debate on the schedule.

Of course, we have football—college, high school and professional, plus the Olympics.
And if this isn't enough, Khrushchev and Castro, in the offing, can always be depended upon for some hot moments.
Yes, this fall, 1960, should be historically and decidedly eventful.

Prayer In City Council

Col. Walter D. Thurber has been for years and is a leading, estimable and working citizen of and for Sierra Madre. He loves this "Little Foothill City of Livability" with all of his stalwart and lovable spirit.

So when he speaks—and what this Elder Statesman of our community says usually is sound and of good judgment—we listen with every attention. He has been a loyal friend and a welcome visitor to the SIERRA MADRE NEWS office and we are ever ready to have him pay us a visit.

NOW COL. THURBER wants City Council to open with prayer, and along this line he has sent the following communication to the city fathers:

"Some years ago a group of 12 representative Sierra Madre men and women were selected to study the various angles of community life in this city and to make a formal report on those things which might be done—in their opinion—to make this a better place in which to live.

On that committee were three members of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, the superintendent of schools, postmaster, president of the Women's Club, president of Kiwanis, two ministers, president of the Civic Club, president of the Co-ordinating Council and others.

The formal report was made, signed by every member of the committee.

It contained a number of recommendations, several of which are now in operation.

Among the recommendations was one with the sub-heading of "Spiritual." Here is the first paragraph of that section of the report—

"Since the foundation of this Republic the opening of meetings with a word of prayer has become standard procedure. This is especially true of regular open meetings of city councils, state legislatures, the Congress of the United States and many others. This is standard procedure in Los Angeles, Monrovia, Arcadia, Alhambra (and—so far as the committee could learn—is true of all city councils in this area except Sierra Madre and Pasadena).

As chairman of this committee—which is no longer in existence—but more especially as a citizen I venture to again bring this thought to the attention of your honorable body in the hope that appropriate action might result."

WE CANNOT SEE why the Sierra Madre City Council should be reluctant about opening its sessions with prayer. If Council members do not care to perform this rite and duty, let them bring in a clergyman—Protestant, Catholic and Jewish in turn—for each meeting.

Divine guidance never hurt anyone—in fact, it might, at times, prove distinctly advantageous for this City Council.

Vote 'No' On 2, 4 And 5

This newspaper does not believe in perpetuation of an oligarchy in State office.

Nor does it believe in our State legislators needlessly having their pay boosted at public expense. As it stands today under the present Brown Democratic regime with its constantly added government bureaus, the public is paying an exorbitant amount for its State government.

For these reasons, the Sierra Madre News opposes Proposition 2, 4 and 5 which face California voters at the November 8 election.

No. 2 provides that members of the State Assembly be on

NEWS FLASH:—

Lee Shippey Says . . .

What Do You Think?

I would much rather write something amusing than write about politics, for Lord knows we all get enough politics just now.

But when a campaign warms up—and this one is going to be mighty warm—it is doggedly difficult to think about anything else.

Last Thursday, for instance, when this was written, the most alarming news in the morning paper for many of my good neighbors was the report of the registrar of voters of San Diego County that his figures showed 30,000 more Democrats than Republicans in the county.

It was also reported that a Democratic headquarters was to open in Del Mar—a thing almost undreamed of before, and that there were more than 90 registered Democrats in Rancho Santa Fe, a community in which it was assumed, the property restrictions forbade the entry of anything but simon-pure Republicans.

To paraphrase the old quatrain about the Cabots and Lowells, it was generally assumed, though never expressed, the Del Marians, Rancho Santa Feans and La Jollans spoke only to Republicans and, when feeling Democratic, to God.

However, once they got over the shock, Del Mar Republicans consoled themselves with reminders that Democrats have such a steady way of fighting one another instead of the opposition that they have lost before and can do it again.

IT'S A FINE thing for people to get out and work for the party they believe in, so long as they do it fairly. This is our country and we do not deserve to be Americans if we don't do what we can to further the policies and persons we believe will be best for our country....

The sad thing is that many of us get so carried away by partisanship that we not only believe—temporarily—

but repeat accusations against opposing candidates to which no one is willing to testify in court.

It should be a criminal offense to print or repeat—or telephone anything damaging to a candidate for which one is not ready to take full responsibility in a court which would deal out severe punishment for slander.

YET in a hot campaign millions of us go about saying vicious things about "that dirty, crooked, so and so."

I have long made a rule never to accuse any candidate of anything to which I could not take oath, with the result that I can't remember ever accusing any candidate of dishonesty or lack of sincerity.

I've had suspicions, in my own mind, of a few, but simply don't repeat anything I can't prove. It should be among the worst of un-American activities to spread slander.

Feats and Not Pie In The Sky

By Edgar W. Hiestand
Representative, 21 District,

The United States tore a page from the annals of science fiction one recent day and placed the adventures of Buck Rogers almost within the realities of our time.

"Humph!" said a man in Washington, "It was a pretty good day for a 'second class' power."

Indeed, it was. For, though the United States was labeled as technologically impotent in the Democrats' Los Angeles convention, we once again pierced still further into the newest of the 'New Frontiers'—the realm of space.

Almost faster than you can say, "Richard M. Nixon," the United States sent an Air Force test pilot to a record

136,500 feet. From the very fringe of space, he radioed back, "This is really fantastic up here."

A SPACE CAPSULE, catapulted from an orbiting satellite, was recovered from the Pacific—another space first.

A communications satellite sped around the earth and from it messages were bounced across the nation. Its successors may serve as an anchor to a global communications network.

An Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile, packed with a batch of radiation-study instruments, zoomed 5,000 miles and landed on target.

A Polaris missile was fired on a flight of more than 1,000 miles, tested for its reliability and groomed for its

October operational target date.

IN BETWEEN, the Air Force boasted four smaller missile launchings.

It was our busiest day in space. And, mind you, here were no "pies in the sky." Here were "feats in the sky."

These were, of course, fantastic developments. And they appear even more fantastic when we note that President Eisenhower took command in 1952 with no semblance of a missile program. At that time, Buck Rogers was still in unbelievable comic strip character.

Today, we can welcome a new word into our vocabulary: spaceology. This is the age of missiles and satellites and worlds beyond our own. It is an age of which we could dream in 1952. But it is here now, not only to dream about but to conquer.

This 'second-class' power we've been hearing about is taking some mighty strides into the frontier of space.

We may not have been there first—the present Administration had to make up for lost time—but it is comforting to know that we are now leading the way.

It's a good feeling.

Driver Is Injured When He Jumps

The brakes went wrong when Conrad Henri drove down S. Hermosa last Friday.

When he reached in front of 140 S. Hermosa, the vehicle was careening faster and faster, Conrad decided to jump.

He did, rolling over toward the sidewalk, suffering multiple cuts and bruises to his face and head. An ambulance took him to Sierra Madre Hospital where his injuries were dressed.

Henri told police he lives at 143 Esperanza.

Behind The Scenes In Business

By Reynolds Knight

NEW YORK—New York's stock exchange, the first new one to be established in Manhattan since 1849, was given the green light last week and trading is expected to get under way by Nov. 1.

The new trading center, National Stock Exchange, Inc., to be located in lower Manhattan's financial district, has been approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission. It will be the 14th national securities exchange in the nation, and is expected to specialize in listings of stocks of relatively small, new companies, most of whose securities listings currently are traded in the over-the-counter market.

The new exchange was incorporated as a subsidiary of the New York Mercantile Exchange last September, but earlier this year, it was re-incorporated as a separate membership corporation. The Mercantile Exchange itself trades in potato, platinum, butter and egg commodity futures.

THE 400 MEMBERS of the Mercantile Exchange have the first chance to apply for memberships in the new exchange. Minimum listing requirements are 500 stockholders, 150,000 shares outstanding and a net worth exceeding $1 million. That seems to leave 100 seats open to outsiders. Ten of these, at $10,000 each, already have been offered by governors of the parent exchange.

The New York Stock Exchange, founded in 1792, and the American Exchange, founded in 1849, account for 90 per cent of the dollar volume of all securities traded on the stock exchange at this time.

TELEVISION FIRST—A unique investment in Anglo-American relations by Hallmark Cards seems certain to mark economic and cultural dividends.

The Kansas City greeting card company joined with a British motion picture distributor in a million dollar venture—the color filming this summer of William Shakespeare's "Macbeth" on location in Scotland and England, actual scenes of the immortal tragedy.

The two-hour production, in which top British technicians were used and an all-British cast, including Maurice Evans, and Dame Judith Anderson, will be shown on the Hallmark Hall of Fame television series in November; then it's scheduled to be released in British theaters early next year.

This is believed to be the first major motion picture produced by a television sponsor. So the cart and the horse have traded places, with the "million dollar movie" budget now a reality in the television industry.

How does a TV sponsor justify such a heavy expenditure? Obviously he's taking the gamble that a production of this caliber, with its broad audience appeal and historic and cultural significance, will justify annual presentation on the Hall of Fame series.

THINGS TO COME—For the crew-cut set there's a new brush especially designed to insure clean hair and provide scalp stimulation. It has long bristles on one side tapering to a shorter length on the other—A new do-it-yourself kit enables weekend sailors to rejuvenate the old boat with relative ease. It contains epoxy resin with curing agents, a dry fiber filler, glass cloth, tape in several sizes, a cleaner solvent and epoxy paint. Old paint need not be stripped to the bare surface.

PUSHING PAPER—The nation's paper industry, which has racked up a big sales gains in the past decade, plans an all-out push to accelerate its forward momentum. One business magazine (Printer's Ink) says this industry hopes for a sales expansion of between 10 and 20 per cent in the next two years. Key tools in the push forward will be a 25 per cent boost in spending for expansion and modernization of plants, and larger outlays in advertising and promotion aimed at other paper-using industries.

BITS O' BUSINESS—An unidentified major oil company is betting $1 million on an effort to find oil off the Georgia seacoast; an area extending to 50 miles off shore will be surveyed. The U.S. shipbuilding industry hit a four-year low on Aug. 1, when only 56 ships were under construction.

Two New Fine Books—One On Dulles

By Robert G. Spivack

CHILMARK, MASS. THE "SOUTH" BY EAST—Political campaigns come and go; crises are with us always. But there is a time each summer when I try to put all these things behind me. I take my family off to this small island (Martha's Vineyard) for a vacation that usually consists of swimming, fishing, boating and reading.

Of the various books I have read this summer, two are outstanding. One is "The Magnolia Jungle" by P.D. East, editor of a good-humored, but nonetheless serious weekly newspaper, published in Petal, Miss.

The other is "Duel at the Brink" by Roscoe Drummond and Gaston Coblentz, two distinguished writers for the New York Herald Tribune.

The former is the autobiography of a courageous Southern editor; the latter is a recounting of John Foster Dulles' stewardship as secretary of state. Both books are important, for altogether different reasons.

IN HIS autobiography, Mr. East is rather a self-deprecating and, perhaps, that helps to explain why his more narrow-minded neighbors do not yield to what must be a natural impulse to run him out of town. They have tried to destroy him economically. His paper does not have a single subscriber in Petal. But that's as far as they have gone.

Yet there must be reasons for their tolerance of this modern Southern rebel. With-out an intimate knowledge of the community I would not venture an explanation beyond observing that what he writes evidently strikes some responsive local chord. Perhaps it is this comment, sandwiched in among a good deal of introspective writing, "Love your enemies," East writes, "because it makes them so damned mad."

His satires of Senators Eastland and Talmadge have frequently been the subject of comment in the nation's press. But in his book there is another aspect to this lonely Mississippi editor. "We all have fears," he once wrote in his newspaper, "but some of us fear the loss of human rights, decency, freedom as an American citizen. The loss of these things strikes a greater fear in me than the fear of a Negro child attending a white school."

On the whole, these two authors have tried to untangle our sticky foreign policy during the first six years of the Eisenhower Administration. This was no easy job, because Dulles was undoubtedly one of the most devious men ever to serve as secretary of state. But his trickiness, his legalistic approach to relations with our allies, and his unconsciously low opinion of those who did not see the light as he saw it were all overshadowed, in the author's judgment by a religious fervor that sustained him in moments of the most serious international tension.

Dulles tried to recreate the spirit of a crusade in his battle against Communism. This was not, as the book relates it, just the U.S. vs. the U.S.S.R. It was Christianity against godlessness.

Although the authors treat him sympathetically, Dulles still does not emerge as a national hero. But he gets an "E" for effort.

ASIDE from their appraisal of Dulles as a man and world figure, Drummond and Coblentz have done something that few authors in the field of foreign affairs do these days. They went out and talked to as many of the diplomats as they could contact on this side of the Iron Curtain.

The result is a tremendous amount of new data, not only about Dulles, but about the whole Eisenhower Administration in its conduct of foreign affairs.

I found more fresh information in these 240 pages than in dozens of the "inside" stories that supposedly gave the low-down on Dulles diplomacy when he was still alive. It's well worth reading.

OUT OF THE COBWEBS

52 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Sept. 4, 1908—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brown, formerly of Ft. Wayne, Ind., have leased the Hotel Sierra Madre and will conduct the business the coming season.

The first service at the new Roman Catholic Chapel, Baldwin and Olive Ave., will be conducted next Sunday by the Rev. Father Barth. Through the generosity of Father Barth the Catholics of Sierra Madre are now provided with a comfortable home of worship which will be greatly appreciated.

Miss Nellie Walton of Ocean Park has taken a tent at the Cypress Court and will spend the winter here.

Messrs C. F. Gray and Harold Costello will start in the morning for the mountains. Several days of fishing and hunting are on the program. They will take only four cartridges and each expects to return with "the limit."

20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Sept. 6, 1940—Sierra Madre grammar school will follow its custom of opening Sept. 16 instead of following the schedule of Pasadena schools which open a week later, Sept. 23.

Those staid and sober Sierra Madres who go to bed early probably didn't know that the first rain since early June fell Tuesday night in the wee small hours of the morning, but night hawks beheld slightly dampened sidewalks and Col. H. B. Hersey's rain gauge registered .04 of an inch.

The first white girl born in Sierra Madre was Anita Carter, daughter of N. C. Carter, founder of the town. The first white boy born in Sierra Madre was Holt Gregory, nephew of Albert Gregory of the Hastings' Ranch. They are married and "living happy ever after."

10 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Sept. 7, 1950—Sierra Madre Guardsmen left for Camp early yesterday morning. The Guardsmen, members of the Sierra Madre Heavy Mortar Company, 223 Regiment, 40th Infantry Division, climbed aboard two Greyhound buses at 12:01 a.m., Wednesday, Sept. 6. They were scheduled to arrive at their destination, Camp Cooke, Calif., shortly after 5 a.m.

Mrs. Noren Eaton, 145 E. Alegria, has been appointed precinct committee chairman of the Coordinated Republican Campaign for the 48th Assembly District.

Mrs. Aurora Murray was elected president of the Sierra Madre Lady Lions at last night's meeting of the group.

Mrs. Murray will succeed Mrs. Jerry Welch. Other officers elected were Mrs. Welch, vice president; Mrs. Velma Dickson, secretary, and Mrs. Alice Harrison, treasurer.

5 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Sept. 8, 1955—The Sierra Madre Community Nursery School opened Tuesday with another of its yearly series of classes, this time with an enrollment of 125 children, who will attend on a two- and three-day basis each week. Mrs. Marjorie Green is the school's director.

Police Chief and Mrs. Gordon G. McMillan, 368 Mari-rosa, have returned from a two-week vacation with most of the time spent rishing in Utah. They were in attendance at the wedding of their son, Ronald, Aug. 19, in Leighton, Utah. Before returning home they visited Bryce and Zion National Parks.

Mrs. Fred Osti, 271 N. Grove, and her children, Jean, Danny and Louie, have returned from a five-week stay at Newport, Calif. Jean, 14, received the championship trophy and a lovely fishing pole and reel from the Balboa Angling Club as the winner in the girls' division for landing the largest variety of fish.

My Aching Back!

Read about a California family who went on their vacation. Seems they were enjoying the scenery on the way to their destination while they were having some snacks. As they finished, the wife put all the empty cans and napkins into a sack and tossed it into the ditch alongside the road. A policeman just happened to be riding behind them and put the seized upon them. The judge ordered the wife to pick up a mile of cans and papers or do five days in the pokey. How did she feel? Well, after she had picked up the mile of trash, she said, "Oh, my poor aching back—never again!" And I believe she meant it.

Chief Brown, Bert Embree Hear Bonelli Outline Plan To Prevent Forest Fires

Southern California is the highest forest fire hazard in the United States.

There are 147 National Forests in the United States of which four are in Southern California, yet this area has more than 50 per cent of the burned-over acreage in the country.

These and other pertinent facts were divulged at last Thursday's emergency meeting of Federal, State, county and city officials called to discuss a master plan for forest fire prevention in Los Angeles County.

THE MEETING, called by Frank G. Bonelli, chairman of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, and held at Eaton's restaurant, 1150 W. Colorado, Arcadia, was attended by Fire Chief Charles E. Brown and Fire Marshal Bert Embree of Sierra Madre.

A "Program for Immediate Action" was outlined by Chairman Bonelli.

It developed that through the U.S. Interior Department at Washington $2 million has been appropriated in the past six years for forest fire prevention, yet only 12 per cent of this, or $240,000 has been received.

"We have had sufficient funds for fighting forest fires," commented one of those present, "but relatively little for fire prevention."

It was pointed out that the series of five major watershed fires from July 17 through July 27 denuded 106.3 square miles in the San Gabriel and Verdugo Mountains. The fires were listed as San Gabriel Canyon, San Dimas Canyon, Magic Mountain, Sunland-La Tuna and Wilson Canyon.

Of the burned-over area, 58.8 square miles are tributary to existing flood control structures, and of the remaining 47.8 square miles, only 10.4 square miles present some flood hazard.

DURING the conference statements were made by Keith E. Klinger, Los Angeles County forester and fire warden; Sim Jarvi, supervisor, Angeles National Forest, U.S. Forest Service; James K. Mace, regional forester, California Division of Forestry; Dr. Keith Arnold, director, California Forest and Range Experiment Station, Berkeley, U.S. Forest Service; M. E. Salsbury, chief engineer, Los Angeles County Flood Control District; A. V. England, chief, Division of Corrections, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department; Robert T. Radford, chairman, Los Angeles County Watershed Commission, and Supervisor Bonelli.

THE LATTER'S statement follows:

"After review of the discussions which we have deliberated here this afternoon and the information which has come to my attention during the conversations which I have had with the various fire experts in planning for this meeting today, I submit the following points as a proposed 'Program of Immediate Action' to accelerate the fire prevention and fire fighting programs in the watershed and forest areas

of Los Angeles County:

"I—Urgently petition the Federal Government:

"A—To comply with the program submitted by the Watershed Commission in 1955 for minimum standards of fire protection in the National Forests of Southern California.

"B—To expedite establishment of a Fire Research Center in Southern California.

"C—Explore feasibility of reactivation of CCC Camp Program on a part time basis during the acute fire hazard period.

"II—That the Board of Supervisors direct:

"A—Accelerated construction of juvenile and adult prisoner camps.

"B—Road Commissioner to meet with appropriate agencies to up-date and expedite the program of public use highways through the watershed and forest areas of the county.

"C—The forester and fire warden to report on specific actions that can now be taken to augment the county's fire fighting capability.

"III—Request the County Watershed Commission:

"A—Submit their Comprehensive Fire Program Study to the Board of Supervisors with a recommended list of priority subjects.

"B—Conduct a special study to develop an immediate action program of fire prevention to combat the public carelessness that causes more than 80 per cent of our wildland fires.

"C—Act as the agency to review and evaluate all proposed

posals related to the acute fire program.

"D—Review and explore the proposal of Attorney Lloyd F. Dunn relative to seven-month a year plane patrol service."

Firemen Gathered For Their Meeting Speed to Blaze

Sierra Madre firemen did a special quick getaway last Friday night.

They were assembled at the Fire Station in City Hall for their regular weekly meeting when "Clang!" went the alarm.

A full complement of "smoke eaters" was instantly on both trucks and away they went, even before the fire whistle sounded.

It was a grease fire at 472 Grove, quickly extinguished, according to the record.

Snake Found In Trash Pile

Mrs. Raymond H. Ohr last Thursday began dumping some rubbish onto her trash pile in the backyard of her home at 30 E. Carter.

Suddenly she heard a whirring, rattling noise, instinctively drawing back, she peered anxiously into the rubbish pile and sure enough it was a sizable rattlesnake.

Police summoned dispatched the snake pronto.

Only Man Can Benefit

"So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom."—90th Psalm.

Monkeys can be taught to do many things that humans do. They perform acrobatic feats and mimic many mannerisms of people. But monkeys cannot know God or be a witness to the fact that The Almighty has been a help in the past, for they cannot be taught to "use the days that they may know Him."

Of all God's creatures only man may "have a heart of wisdom" and one of his greatest helps in attaining that noble end is his church. The monkey is incapable of using the Church but man may use it for a life of joyous fellowship with God and with his fellowmen. Its service is his for the asking.
